

Dear Travel Partner,

We invite you to discover the new way of searching availability on our Groups Platform.

Now, the Groups website has a new feature for viewing spaces: The Availability Lights. Access our website to discover it.

Availability Lights

When requesting a group, after selecting dates and segments flight, the system will load the new feature and will inform about the availability. You can check below the new availability lights:

In this new version, the possibilities of group approval will be signaled as follows:

Red light flights: Low Yellow light flights: Medium Green light flights: High
